Under SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT, Mrs. Arato allowed Monte Lawler, MACT President, to address the Board. Ms. Lawler announced that American Education Week is November 15-21, 2009. Mrs. Arato then announced the following:

The Moore Public Schools Social Studies Department will host a Veteran’s Day program at the ASC on Wednesday, Nov. 11th at 2:00 p.m. The program and music will be presented by students from Moore High School and Highland East Jr. High. There will be a reception immediately following the program and guests will have the opportunity to tour the Freedom: A History of the US exhibit that is on loan to the district by the Gilder Lehrman American History Institute in New York City.

Moore West Junior High principal, Dr. Michaele Benn, and teacher, Karen Stephens, recently had the privilege to go to Washington D.C. to receive a Blue Ribbon Award for their school. Anthony Mullen, National Teacher of the Year spoke at the ceremony about “recovering lost students”. He is a former NYC police officer that is now a special education teacher in alternative school setting. Arne Duncan, Secretary of Education, spoke to the Blue Ribbon recipients and also took some time answering questions.

Sixth grade art students at Central Elementary painted downtown store windows for the City of Moore with fall scenes this year. Students and Mrs. Miner, their teacher, did a wonderful job painting and cleaning up.
Fairview has been nominated for consideration to become a Blue Ribbon School. Fairview was nominated in the Title I category for dramatic improvement over the past five years.

Fisher STUCO and sixth grade students are honoring veterans that are related to our students on Wednesday, November 11th with an assembly and reception

Houchin fifth grade students will be taking part in Colonial Day at the Capitol in February. The Colonial Day Foundation only selects seven schools from the entire state to participate and Houchin was chosen to be one of the schools. Students will dress in colonial outfits and participate in authentic activities that correlate with fifth grade PASS skills.

Kelley Elementary School teachers, Mickie Key and Tammy Seltzer, were instructors at the “I Teach Kindergarten” conference in Las Vegas this summer and have been asked to return.

Congratulations to Brink Junior High Student Council. They have been elected State President
School for next year and will be hosting the annual convention.

Central Jr. High just hosted the State Convention entitled – “The Leader Within”

- Eight hundred students attended from 73 middle and junior high schools. Keynote speakers included: OU women’s basketball coach, Sherri Coale, Allan Johnson from Moore, and Para-Olympian Josh Sundquist.
- Breakout sessions were taught by MHS STUCO students and were described in evaluations as the best break-out sessions in years.
- The dance/fun night was held at SHS and was an enormous hit. Many NJHS members at Southmoore participated as volunteers.
- Over 25 local businesses provided food for the dance/fun night. First Baptist in Moore hosted the actual convention, and the Moore Public Library and variety of other vendors provided video games for the fun night
- David Wall and Kendra Rakes serve as STUCO sponsors. Deidre Ebrey, Moore’s economic Development Director was instrumental in assisting and was excited how the event spotlighted our education and business community
- Finally, the CJH officers from last year basically managed and facilitated the entire event by playing a major role in speaking and leading activities through the entire convention.
  They are: Hong Her, John Newton, Kylan Rhodes and Kendra Beedle.

Congratulations to the following Highland West students: Miranda Koutahi – 7th grade Red Ribbon Poster winner, Sang Ngo – 8th grade Red Ribbon Poster winner, and Abigail Jolley – 8th grade Red Ribbon essay contest winner.

Congratulations to HEJH 8th grade football team which qualified for the Holland Bowl.
MHS Student Council concluded a fundraising project for the Make-A-Wish foundation. Over $3,500 was collected from MHS students and staff which will go toward the purchase of a handicap assistance canine.

Over 320 meals were served at the MHS Annual Sharon Ledgerwood Memorial-Senior Citizen Holiday dinner on Thursday, November 5th.

Scholarship Admissions Saturday will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the MHS library.

The MHS Speech/Debate Team placed 2nd at the Classen School of Advanced Studies Sweepstakes this past weekend.

The FFA Appreciation Dinner will be held on Saturday, Nov. 14th at 6:00 p.m. at the Ag Farm.

MHS musical “Guys and Dolls” will be held on Friday and Saturday, November 20th and 21st at 7 pm at Central Jr. High auditorium.

MHS will host an ACT Study Session on Saturday, December 5th at the MHS Library from 9:00 am to 12 pm.

Westmoore Band received straight superior ratings at the OSSAA West Regional Marching Contest. They also placed 5th in the Oklahoma Bandmaster’s Association Marching Championship.

WHS is pleased to announce they have three National Merit Finalists.

Jessica Oehrlien, a sophomore at WHS, received a perfect 36 on the ACT. Jessica is one of only 91 students in the nation to score a perfect 36 on the ACT.

Lacy Hanson, senior at Westmoore, received All-State volleyball honors. She is the second volleyball player to receive All-State Honors in school history.

Westmoore Pom Squad won two state titles at the OU/UDA state competition, where both the Varsity and JV won state titles in their Jazz divisions. Five girls won All-State Pom and Dance team awards. The squad has once again qualified for the National Competition in Orlando, Florida where they will compete for their fourth national title.

The WHS Cross Country girls team was Conference Champion and Regional and State Runner-up. All Conference honors went to: Toby Bothwell, Taylor Painter, Lauren Robinson, Noemi Hernandez and Morgan Roberts. All Regional were: Toby Bothwell, Taylor Painter, Lauren Robinson and Noemi Hernandez. Our 2009 All-staters were: Toby Bothwell and Taylor Painter – 2nd place; and Noemi Hernandez- 10th place. Honorable Mention All-State went to Lauren Robinson for her 13th place finish.
Southmoore senior Brianna Chavez, a member of the Kiowa Nation, is the reigning Oklahoma City Indian Princess.

Maria Hilterbran was named to the large West All-State fast pitch softball team

The Southmoore Band received superior ratings from all judges at the OSSAA Regional Marching Contest.

The Southmoore Special Olympics basketball team received 2nd place ribbons in their division at the area games this past weekend.

SHS students Shaye Gunter (Sr.) and Carissa Dean (Jr.) were the UDA Pom and Dance Championship State Solos Runners Up in their categories

SHS One Act Play qualified for state and placed 6th

SHS Pom squad hosted the Susan G. Komen Awareness football game vs. Norman North. The squad collected money in the stands that was donated to Susan G. Komen and also participated in the “Race for the Cure”.

SHS student, Patrick Roseborough Jr. is one of 3 students in the state selected to participate in OCU’s first annual “SuperStars: Entertainment Leaders of Tomorrow”. This elite student team will be invited to have hands-on experience in planning, organizing, and executing exclusive SuperStars events while working alongside entertainment professionals in the Ann Lacey School of American Dance and Arts Management.
