

Name _____ Hr. ____ Date _____

Sentences from The Giver for Grammar Analysis Practice

- a. I am feeling apprehensive.
- b. Yes, this talk will be a private one with Jonas.
- c. Each December brings such changes.
- d. The Ceremony of the Ones was always noisy and fun.
- e. I feel a little guilty about this.
- f. I call him Gabe, actually.
- g. He remembered his father's look of delight.
- h. The Ceremony of Twelve was the last of the Ceremonies.
- i. During the past year Jonas has been aware of the increasing level of observation.
- j. There was absolutely nothing remarkable about that apple.
- k. It had changed in mid-air.
- l. Jonas had blinked, looked around, and then tested his eyesight.
- m. Does anything seem strange to you about the apple?
- n. Yes, it jumps out of my hand onto the ground.
- o. But he had taken the apple home, against the recreation area rules.
- p. He had held a magnifying glass to it.
- q. Jonas had tossed the apple several times across the room.
- r. The newchild, Gabriel, stirred and whimpered.
- s. Father spoke softly to Lily.
- t. It was different only in the addition to it of the newchild with his pale, solemn, knowing eyes.

5 Step Grammar Analysis

1. (PP)

2. S

3. V

4. AV? or LV?

5. C

a. AV → DO

DO → IO

b. LV → PN or PA