

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Choose which stanzas (from one to all three) you want for your first draft. Write a neat draft in your Writer's notebook. You may tape this pre-writing in to count as one full page.

In My Perfect World

In my perfect world, there would be _____

but never _____.

People would think _____ and would never do _____.

People would wear _____

and eat _____,

but _____ and _____ would be against the rules.

In my perfect world, there would be _____

and _____,

but never _____.

Families would _____

and would never _____.

People would read _____

and watch _____,

but _____ and _____ would not even exist.

In my perfect world, there would be _____

and _____

but no _____.

Society would _____

but would not _____.

The government would be _____

and would not _____,

and no one would even remember _____

or _____ at all.