Attention Students:

In honor of Hispanic Heritage month, Club X would like to recognize Cesar Chavez. Cesar Chavez was an Mexican-American farmworker, labor leader, and civil rights activist. Chavez, after witnessing and experiencing the hard and inhumane ways that agriculture workers were being treated, dedicated his life to achieving recognition of their rights. Through his civil rights work, Chavez was able to enact the first Bill of Rights for agricultural workers and was recognized with the highest civilian honor, the Presidential Medal of Freedom. Quote: "Once social change begins, it cannot be reversed. You cannot uneducated the person who has learned to read. You cannot humiliate the person who feels pride. You cannot oppress the people who are not afraid anymore. We have seen the future, and the future is ours." -Cesar Chavez
