Attention Students:

Mrs. Rachel Gonzalez-Stark, our principal of Moore High School, is the first Hispanic high school leader in the Moore District. She is also a graduate of Moore High class of 1988 and was active as a student council officer, FCA, Young Life and Varsity Tennis. Mrs. Stark studied education at the University of Central Oklahoma. Beginning in 1998, Mrs. Stark taught 7th, 8th, and 9th grade English at Brink Junior high, then taught at Moore High School before leaving in 2006 to be assistant principal at Capitol Hill and Edmond North. Mrs. Stark returned to Moore High School in 2012 as a Freshman principal and would become Junior class principal in 2016. This is Mrs. Stark's second year as head principal at Moore High School, and Club X is delighted to celebrate our own Mrs. Gonzales-Stark during Hispanic and LatinX heritage month! Her favorite quote is "If not me, who? And if not now, when?" by Hillel.
