Mrs. Arato provided the following information during SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT:

The exhibit in the board room is called “Freedom: A History of Us”. The display is part of the Teaching American History Grant. Students from our schools have been visiting the exhibit in groups and given short lessons on the information contained in the exhibit.

The Moore Association of Classroom Teachers has asked the district to join them in celebrating American Education Week from November 17 through 21st.

Congratulations to Barbara Shelton for receiving achievement as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist.

Southmoore High School has received a Robotics Grant from the State Department of Education. Mrs. Darla Wyatt, Science Teacher at Southmoore, is the program director.

The district has received notification by the State Department of Education that we have again submitted a successful FY09 Alternative Education Grant Application. We will be receiving $65,000 in grant monies for the program.
On the CONSENT AGENDA portion of the meeting agenda is a request by Southgate Elementary School for the board’s approval in allowing them to accept the donation of $30,000 from Drill Right for SmartBoards, special education playground equipment, and other items. Drill Right is owned by Daryl and Becky Husted. They are the same people who made a large donation to Houchin Elementary last year and have made many large donations to non-school entities in the community.

Congratulations to each of our high schools and several of our junior highs for hosting a successful trick or treat night.

Central Jr. High will be campaigning for the Oklahoma Association of Middle Schools and Junior High Student Councils state presidency. If successful, they will be hosting the 2009 state convention.

Congratulations to the following Moore Public School athletes for receiving All-State recognition in Fast-Pitch softball:

Moore High School:

Katie Lynn
Leslie Martini
Drew Wright

Westmoore High School:

Kaci Quintero
Breyonna Phillips

Congratulations to Coach Steve Schwarz at Westmoore High School for being named the 2008 fast pitch all state coach of the year.

Congratulations to the following Westmoore Cross Country runners who received All State Honors

Katelin Cherry
Allex Tarr
Taylor Painter
Iasha Keller
Toby Bothwell

Congratulations to Brian Pickens of Moore High School who received Honorable Mention
Congratulations to Sheridan Fulkerson, member of the Southmoore Pom Squad, for being named to the all-state pom squad.

Alyssa Bland, member of the Southmoore Pom Squad, won first place in the solo division of the OU State Pom Competition.

Westmoore High School won the Marine Corps “Chin Up” Challenge by doing over 4,000 chin ups during the lunch periods. Representatives of the Marine Corps visited metropolitan high schools with this challenge and Westmoore was the winner.
